

PEOPLE and SOCIETY

- 1) Ethics
- 2) Social etiquette
- 3) Social behaviour
- 4) Communication among people

Do you agree with the following statement?
Explain.

- Good manners are more important than education.

Brainstorm the vocabulary connected with the following subtopics:

Which ethical rules should be kept in the following situations?

@
Internet
News
E-Mail
Search
Chat

2.

What do people in our country do when meeting other people? Compare it with other countries.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Describe table manners at home and in a restaurant.

1.

2.

Which social rules and clothes are required in the following situations?

What kind of behaviour is not appropriate in the situations above?

What are the features of people having good manners and people having bad manners?

IMPOLITE

HELPFUL

GENEROUS

EGOISTIC

RELIABLE

RUDE

TOLERANT

POLITE

What would you DO and what would you SAY in the following situations?

- 1. A young woman has difficulties to park her car.
- 2. A little boy is crying in the street.
- 3. An old man with a walking stick is going up the stairs.
- 4. You are travelling by bus. You are sitting on the seat. A pregnant woman is getting on. All seats are taken.
- 5. A woman with shopping bags is trying to open the door.